SATURDAY EVENING, AUGUST 17, 1878

A PRACTICAL SWEETHEART .- A nice young man employed in the Kansas Pacific office at Trains leave Washington from depot of BAL-Kansas City resolved the other day to present his beloved girl with a nice pair of shees. He accordingly procured her measure and went into one of the fashionable stores on Main street and purchased a two dollar pair of shoes. In order to make the present appear more valuable he marked five dollars upon the soles of the shoes, and at his request the clerk put a receipted bill for five dollars into one of the shoes. The presentation was made and the lovers were happy, as lovers should be. But mark the sequel.

The girl examined the shoes in the daylight, and was not satisfied. She was convinced that her lover had been cheated in the purchase of her lover had been cheated in the purchase of such a pair of shoes at that price. She decided to go and change the shoes and obtain a better bargain. She appeared in the store and selected a pair of shoes, price three dollars and a half, and politely requested the clerk to take back the shoes for which she said five dollars had been paid. The receipted bill was produced in proof, and the boot man found it impossible to go "behind the returns." The smart girl took her three dollars and a half pair of shoes, and obtained a dollar and a half in money, and went obtained a dollar and a half in money, and went home happy and satisfied. The boot seller sent a bill for three dollars to the young man, who promptly paid the difference, but he thinks that girl a little too smart for him.

Readers of the "Noctes Ambrosiars" will remember, under the name of "Tibble Shiels," Mrs. Isabella Richardson, whose death in Scotland at the advanced age of ninety-six years, is announced by mail as having occurred on the 23d ultimo. She was, as those readers know, the mistress of a cottage situated by the side of St. Mary's Loch, where Christopher North and James Hogg, the "Ettrick Sheperd," used to meet. "Her death," says the London Academy "breaks one of the few personal links which bound the Scotland of literature to the Scotland of the tourist. The historical cottage has grown to a hotel, whose chief attraction was the good housewifery and interesting reminiscences which were given by 'Auld Tibble' of the two celebrated men who once were her guests."

ICE CREAM.

My Ice Cream Manufactory, one of the largest in Virginia, still continues to supply private customers, Sunday schools, excursions, picnics, fairs, festivals and associations, as well as the trade, with that SUPERIOR CREAM that has made a name in this community, and is known everywhere as BRENGLE'S IOE CREAM. 1 everywhere as BRENGLE'S IUE CREAM. I could easily reduce its price by lowering its quality, but good cream, of fresh, pure, wholesome ingredients, cannot be furnished at a less price than I serve it. Of course, I could "grade my cream by the price," but my cream would lose the good name that years of fair dealing have won for it. I ask that persons abroad ordering "Brengle's Cream" from third parties will assure themselves that the cream sent is certainly from my establishment. I warrant my cream, and do not wish that inferior cream, sent out as mine, may injure its reputation. It is my aim mine, may injure its reputation. It is my aim to furnish the BEST CREAM IN AMERICA, and my customers are satisfied that I do so. HENRY BRENGLE.
